

A Panel Discussion on the Spirit, People and Politics
of El Salvador

Panelists:

Margaret (Gigi) Gruenke, MSW

Maryknoll Lay Missioner Who Spent Seven Years in El Salvador

Tom Howarth

Director of the Fr. McKenna Center at St. Aloysius Gonzaga Church, Washington, DC., Who Has Just Returned From the 20th Anniversary Celebration of the Jesuit Martyrs of El Salvador

and

Sr. Patti Ann Rogucki

Missioner and Representative of Salvadoran Enterprises for Women (SEW)

Please join us in Ignatian Hall of St. Ignatius Church, 740 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202 on November 21, 2009.

Light hors d'oeuvres ala Central America at 6:30 p.m.
Panel Discussion at 7:00 p.m.

Commemoration
Of Jesuit Martyrs
20th Anniversary

St. Ignatius Church
10:30 a.m. Mass
November 22, 2009

Guest Speaker

Massachusetts Congressman

Jim McGovern

He has a long history of advocacy in support of human rights and equitable development in Latin America.

Music

La Cosecha

The young Latino group from St. Michael/St. Patrick in Fells Point will provide the music at the Mass.

Crafts

Salvadoran Enterprises for Women

After the Mass, Salvadorian crafts will be available for purchase for the benefit of SEW.

Please join us at St. Ignatius Church, 740 N. Calvert St., Baltimore, MD 21202 at 10:30 a.m. on November 22, 2009.